Touring the past few weeks there has been considerable correspondence between the executive committee and Grand Exalted Ruler Pickett on this subject. In his telegram and several letters, he has placed his stamp of disapproval upon a boxing exhibition of any kind being pulled off in Salt Lake during the week of the reunion, adding that an attraction of that character, whether it be held under the auspices of the lodge or not, would be looked under the description of the order with reference thereto.

"I do not know how I can make it any more emphatic than, as I have stated, it would be indeed, a very serious matter for your lodge, and it would be a matter of great regret to me if anything of an unpleasant character should happen between your lodge as a very serious affair, and saying, further, that the consequences ing, further, that the consequences might be very severe for this lodge.

There has already been more or less comment among the grand lodge officers with reference to notices that have appeared in the papers to the effect that a prize fight would be held in Salt Lake City during the days of our reunion. It would be very unfortunate, indeed, if it was held in Salt Lake City, even if without the permission or approval of your lodge in a questionable fight before the order. DR. M'ELROY IS ILL

Well Known Young Physician Reported Dying in Portland.

News reached the city yesterday that Dr. R. L. McElroy of the medical department of the Holy Cross hospital is lying at the point of death in St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, Ore. County Physician Mayo and the sister superior of the Holy Cross hospital left last night to attend him in his illness. The trouble is heart disease.

Dr. McElroy has been troubled with his heart for some time and, after watching constantly by the bedside of the late Dr. Fowler, he was taken quite ill, and upon the advice of Dr. Mayo went to Portland in the hope that his ailment would be benefited. He improved for a short time, but became worse, and was finally forced to go to the hospital. His condition became so serious that yesterday the authorities there.

serious that yesterday the authorities there wired Dr. Mayo and the sister superior to come to him at once, as it was feared that he would not survive. As soon as they received the message, Dr. Mayo wired back to know just how serious the doctor's condition was, and the reply was to the feature of the serious terms of the serious terms. was, and the reply was to the effect that it was very serious. Accordingly, the doctor and sister superior left last night, and will make all haste to his bedside. Dr. Mayo stated that if found the patient in a condition travel he would immediately bring h he would immediately bring him but that if he was not able to the trip, he would remain with alm until a change occurred

Dr. McElroy is one of the best known and most popular young doctors in the city, and the news of his serious condition will be received with the deepest regret by all who knew him, both in a business and social way. The doctor was associated with Dr. Fowler up to the time of the latter's death, and has for a number of years been a member of the medical staff of the Holy Cross hospital.

FUNSTON IS COMING.

Little Fighter Will Inspect Fort Douglas Today.

It was thought that General Funsion would inspect the post the latter part of this month, and the telegram took Colonel Bubb somewhat by surprise. No definite programme has been laid out for the general's visit, nor will any be arranged till it is definitely known how long he will remain here.

tel on the same subject to Secretary Raybould from the grand exalted ruleg:

"Waterloo, Ia., July 21, 1902.—A. W. Raybould. Salt Lake City Utah. Dear Brother Raybould: I had some correspondence recently with your chairman. Brother Leary, with reference to a prize fight, and informed him that the same would be contrary to the laws of our order. If given with any direct or indirect recognition by your lodge it would place your charter in jeopardy. I know the attitude the grand lodge officers have taken during the past year along these lines.

"Another case arose this year, so that I am speaking authoritatively. It would not do to have a prize fight in your city during that week, as it would be charged to your lodge, and you would get the credit for it, whether properly or not. Therefore, you had better see the authorities and you boys get together and put a stop to it at once. This is very important.

"Thave just had a meeting with the grand trustees and other grand lodge officers, wherein the matter was discussed. You are no doubt aware that the newspapers have had a number of dispatches in to the effect that there would be a big fight that week. Fraturnly,

Another daughter, only 4 months old, is at the Foundlings' home. Further efforts to locate her relatives will be made, but in the event of their failure, she will be buried in 'the paupers' field of the City cemetery.

B. Y. HAMPTON BURIED.

Last Ceremonies Over Body of Well Known Citizen.

With solemn and impressive ceremony the last sad rights were performed yesterday over the remains of the late Brigham Y. Hampton, at the Thirteenth ward meeting house.

Friends and associates of the deceased in his early career in Salt Lake City, filled the house, and the deepest sorrow was manifested by everyone. Floral tributes of unusual heauty and elaborateness were banked about the casket. The services were conducted by Bishop Nelson A. Empey of the ward and were most impressive.

Music was furnished by Fred Graham, Mrs. Browning and H. S. Goddard. The services were opened with the song, "Oh, My Father," after which prayer was offered by Elder Charles Livingstone. Brief, but earnest, addresses were made by Elders C. R. Savage, J. McMurrin, Charles Wilkin, Joseph E. Taylor, John Wiseman, Samuel Bateman, William Philips, N. V. Jones, Andrew Smith, President John R. Winder, Bishop O. F. Whitney and President Joseph Smith. They all spoke in the highest termin of the deceased, and paid the highest compliments to him as a citizen and an officer.
